Coaches Training Institute offer to CPD Institute members

10% off the CTI introductory coach training course, *The Fundamentals

Over the last 20 years CTI has trained more than 35,000 managers, entrepreneurs, consultants, and new career seekers worldwide in their proprietary Co-active coaching model, and today trains more new coaches each year than any other training program. Thanks to CTI's faculty of highly trained course leaders, wherever you are in the world you can be assured of the exemplary and consistent standard of our training.

The Co-Active Coach® Training process happens organically from a place of authentic being, listening and encouragement to uncover the best in oneself and others. Uniquely, at CTI, the experiential learning process begins from day one in small groups of no more than 26. Our founders' involvement with the International Coach Federation (ICF) from its very inception has resulted in a significant influence on the industry, including much of the ICF framework of coaching competencies and ethics.

CTI is delighted to offer members of the CPD Institute 10% off the cost of our two-and-a-half-day introductory coach training program, The Fundamentals, available in London and Manchester. NB: this offer cannot be combined with any other promotion we may be offering at any time.
